

KARNATOVYKH NICKOLAY FYODOROVICH

KARNATOVYKH NICKOLAY FYODOROVICH (born in 1908, Kiev)

Author of subject paintings and landscapes. He worked in the genres of narrative, landscape, and still life. One of the founders of the art of Socialist Realism. He was also author of monumental paintings dedicated to the Great Patriotic War like "Encounter of the Great Patriotic War veterans on the Brest lands", "Captives under escort", "The world's warriors", "News from the continent", "Far away from the Motherland" and "View of Stalingrad theatre of war". He began to exhibit in 1931 participating in city, regional, local and All-Union art exhibitions. The most fruitful phase of his activity is in the 1950s. The works of N.F. Karnatovkh can be found in many regional museums and in private collections.

"Kovpak's plan" – oil on canvas - 160 X 120cm