

DENISOVSKI NIKOLAI FEDOROVICH

DENISOVSKI NIKOLAI FEDOROVICH (Born in Moscow, 1901)

He studied at Stroganov College and at Moscow Free Art Studios from 1911 to 19...Member of ObMoKhu from 1919(1920?) to 1921(1923?). He began exhibiting in 1926. Important shows include "Anti-Imperialist Exhibition" in Moscow in 1931, "Artist of the Russian Federation over Fifteen Years" in Leningrad in 1932, " 15 years Artists of the Russian Federation" in Moscow in 1933, "15 Years of the Workers' and Peasants Red Army" in Moscow in 1938 and "All-Union Art Exhibition" in 1946 and 1950. He taught at Leningrad Academy of Arts in 1929 and at Moscow Higher Arts and Graphic College from 1955 to 1956. He is best known as a graphic artist.

"Kalinin's speech" - oil on canvas - 129 x 94cm