

LAPTEV VASILIIY YAKOVLEVICH

LAPTEV VASILIIY YAKOVLEVICH (born in 1918, Shmelevshchina)

Studied painting in art studio Vyatka until 1938. Active in Chelyabinsk. He became a member of the USSR Union of Painters in 1945. He participated in various shows and exhibitions in Soviet Union. His works can be found in the most important museums of the country, particularly in Kirov and in Magnitogorsk in the Urals, as well as in numerous private collections in the West, in Austria and Germany.

“Autumn in Ailinio, South Urals” - Oil on cardboard –
50,5 x 32,5cm