

OGONOCHENKO ALEKSANDR VASILEVICH

OGONOCHENKO ALEKSANDR VASILEVICH (born in 1920, Odessa)

People's Artist of USSR. He studied at Odessa Art College until 1948 and at Tallinn Art Institute until 1954. Active in Odessa. He was author of still lifes, landscapes and genre paintings. He has regularly exhibited since 1945. He participated in All-Union exhibitions in Moscow in 1947, 1949, 1950 and in the exhibition "Soviet Russia" in Moscow in 1960. The artist's works are exhibited in many regional museums, as well as in private collections in Russia and abroad.

"Lenin' speech: All the power to the Soviets" – oil on canvas –
197 x 150cm